CALEDONIA.

The following is the welcome address delivered by W. W. Hartsfield, Pastor of M. E. Church South, before Lowndes County Singing Convention assembled at Flint Hill church Sept. 14th, 1919.

Ladies and Gentlemen, friends:—As spokesman for the church and community, I am pleased to inform you that a welcome salutes you all. To-day we commend you to comfort and free you from anxiety, and trust that no one has brought abroad a shadow of care; because we would have you be as merry as first, good company can be.

A friend of mine on a hike climbed to the summit of an Alabama hill, seated himself on a stump. Oblivious to the presence of any one, he performed a melody on his violin and was surprised to hear a blue jay call "Play it, Play it," as the music died away. He performed again and again and invariably the blue-jay called, "Play it, Play it," as the music ceased.

Music-melody-harmony, charms the birds, subdues the savage spirit of the beast and stills the weary longing of the soul. When the sky light is clear and its sun shines resplendent, we sing in the major key, and when the clouds gather and the curtains are drawn, the voice is low and our mirth has ceased, then the unconquerable soul asserts itself in the minor key and sings back to our list-while joy.

Singing is a medium by which this harmony is conveyed and when we wed it to a kind reception we develop a miniature heaven.

An actress attended a service; the choir sang "Depth of Mercy, can there be mercy still reserved for me?" She stood for prayer; the song asserted itself in her soul; she rear her long neglected Bible and came at peace with God. Afterwards supporting the principle character in a new play, she sang, not the accompaniment of the Orchestra, but "Depth of Mercy, Can there be Mercy Still reserved for me?" Some ridiculed but many were awakened to a need of spiritual development.

Some object to the Convention on the ground of "Sunday picnic." Sometimes the picnic phase develops. Unscrupulous men counterfeit our currency. We retain the "Legal" and restrain the "Illegal," without repudiating the currency system. So in all things suppress the evil and cleave to the good. We sing you a welcome, we laugh you a welcome, and smile you a welcome.

With the coming of Autumn, we hear the school bells ringing, gathering the children to train them for American citizenship. The best work is in our school rooms and the wise leadership of our girls and boys must be utilized in guiding them in preparation for the responsible duties that await them in the near future.

The Caledonia consolidated high school will open at 8 A. M. the first Monday in October, with Miss Birdie Malloy as principal, Mrs. T. L. Dowdle, first assistant, Miss A. B. Wilson, Music. Will give the faculty in full next week. The outlook is encouraging for the largest first day enrollment in the history of the institution. No matter what question may be held as to the many questions which may now, or in the future, disturb or hinder our on-going, no one doubts but what the consolidated school is and will be a grand success. We have to start with, four schools consolidated with the Caledonia school. The pupils will be carried in nice motor cars on schedule time.

The Caledonia high school has weathered the storm of war in good shape and the only drawback we have just now is the boarding problem. Let the people wake up and help the school solve this problem by building a good boarding house. Students are being turned away daily from this school by some one sleeping and letting the school and the children be neglected. Let's everybody come to school the first Monday in October and make this a gala day for the consolidated school in Caledonia.

We are informed by Prof. N. F. Judon, one of the Monroe county's oldest and most prominent citizens and successful farmers, that he is seventy one (71) years of age and has not bought a bushel of corn in forty five years. He also states that he raises his own hogs at home and some to spare. He is the noted singer of the Greenwood Springs section and has been teaching music all his life.

The following were entertained at dinner by Mrs. D. F. Groves on Friday of the past week, at her home in East Caledonia: Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Perry, Mrs. E. B. Eger, Mrs. Sam Smith and family, also Mrs. Groves' mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, of Gatman, Miss. This day will ever remain green in the memory of all those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Groves home.

THAT may seem queer talk under present building cost but we make the prediction advisedly.

For some years to come our export of building materials is bound to be immense.

For some years to come we will be unable to catch up with the demand at home.

We honestly believe we can sell to you cheaper today than we can later on.
